LIVER TROUBLE.

"I am bothered with liver trouble about twice a year," writes Joe Dingman, Webster City, Iowa. "I have pains in my side and back and an average in my stomach. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and tried them. By the time I had used half a bottle of them I was feeling fine and had no sign of pain." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Short Stories OF THE TOWN

A Correction.

The regular meeting of the auxiliary to the Trainmen will be held Thursday afternoon instead of Thursday night as announced yesterday.

Sole Filed.

Suit was filed in the court clerk's office yesterday by Ed S. LeVan and John C. Delana vs. William Guyner, et al. mortgage and foreclosure.

Goes to Her Sons.

Mrs. D. A. Dryden, wife of the Grady county jailer, left today for Verden taking with her a large part of her household furnishings. Mrs. Dryden goes for a change and will keep house for her sons, the Dryden Brothers, grocers at that place.

Chickasha Party to Yellowstone.

A card received from Hobson Bale by his brother this morning, states that the party of automobile tourists comprised of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bale, Hobson and his sister, are now in Saratoga, Wyoming, about 2000 miles from Chickasha. From there the party will go to Yellowstone Park.

Try to Steal Overland.

An attempt was made to steal Sam Cowan's Overland Sunday night, but the auto thieves were foiled in their efforts because they could not unlock the car. The car was found the next morning on the corner of Fifth and Iowa, where it had been rolled so the efforts to start it would not be heard.

Return from Great Lakes.

Mrs. Charles Wagner and daughter, Miss Ella, have returned from a trip to the Great Lakes, visiting in Chicago, Green Bay and points in Wisconsin. Mrs. Wagner visited with her mother and brother and had the pleasure of being present at a big celebration on her mother's eightieth birthday.

In Police Court.

The police court docket today showed the following lineup: J. T. Holt and Frank Horton, disturbing the peace; Mexican Joe Martin fined $5 for being drunk; Cap Weaver fined $6 for the same offense; J. C. Brooks, $5 for the same offense; E. E. Cassaway and Mrs. Dorthy arrested on the charge of immoral conduct.

Mother of Mrs. Rouse Dies.

Avery Rouse returned last night from Tishomingo where Mrs. Rouse's mother, Mrs. Lula Helm, was buried Sunday. Mrs. Rouse was called to her mother's bedside last Wednesday and Mrs. Helm passed away Thursday. Business matters will detain Mrs. Rouse in Tishomingo a few days, but she is expected home the latter part of the week.

Meador Gets Better Position.

G. E. Meador, principal of the West school in this city for the past three years, has been elected superintendent of schools at Seminole, Okla. at a salary of $1200 per year and is leaving with his family for that place. He has been attending the summer session of the state university but returned yesterday preparatory to moving. The Seminole schools employ nine teachers and the high school is fully accredited by the university. Mr. Meador was highly successful in his work here and he leaves many friends in Chickasha.

DENOUNCING MEDICINES.

Wholesale denunciation of proprietary medicines is no more justifiable than wholesale denunciation of the medical profession. It is no more true that there are reputable physicians who unselfishly devote their lives to an unending struggle with disease than that there are standard remedies which do as good a work; often where the work of the good physician cannot reach. A good example is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which has for forty years been alleviating the sufferings of women, and curing the ill peculiar to their sex.—Adv.

JUST THE THING

FOR DIARRHOEA

"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Many druggists recommend this remedy because they know that it is reliable. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

WOUNDED IN THE TRENCH.

An official photograph from the western front made during the advance of the allies on the Teuton lines, showing wounded British defenders of one of the trenches. Note the mushroom steel helmets worn by the men.

WHERE COURTESY PAID

A BIG DIVIDEND

The winner of the contest on "Why I Think It Pays to be Courteous" in the August American Magazine tells the following instance where courtesy paid a big dividend.

"A woman came into the bank quite early, eight-thirty, an hour and a half before the opening hour, ten o'clock. She said that she was in great trouble, and had to get some money from her account immediately as she was obliged to leave for the south at once. She showed me a telegram announcing the death of her son by a gunshot wound received in Texas. I consoled with her, had her waited upon immediately, accompanied her to the station, secured her tickets, etc. As the railroad station was only a block from the bank I had ample time to attend to these details. She thanked me with tears in her eyes. I returned to the bank and dismissed the matter from my mind.

"About six weeks afterward, a lady garbed in mourning approached my desk, wished me a pleasant good morning and said, 'You don't remember me, do you?' I replied in the negative. She explained that it was she whom I had accompanied to the train. She told me she had realized on the accident and life insurance policies of her late son, and though she was offered by a bank in Texas one and one-half per cent more interest on her funds than we paid, she preferred to deposit them in the bank in Chicago where the employees were courteous to her in her hour of bereavement and trouble."

HERE'S TO LAUGHTER.

The sunshine of the soul, the happiness of the heart, the heaven of youth, the treasure of the humble, the wealth of the poor, the head of the cup of pleasure, it dispels dejection, banishes the blues and mangles melancholy, for it's the foe of woe; the destroyer of depression, the enemy of grief. It is what kings envy peasants, plutocrats envy the poor, the guilty envy the innocent. It's the shine on the silver of smiles, the ripple on the waters of delight, the glint on the gold of gladness. Without it humor would be dumb, wit would wither, dimples would disappear, and smiles would shrivel. It's the glow from a clean conscience—is laughter.

CINDERS ARE SCARCE.

Now that the weeds have been practically removed from the sidewalks and streets of the city, Street Commissioner Dan Beets has put his crew to laying cinders on these streets which have formerly had them but which are now in need of repair. No new streets will be paved in this way, it is said, owing to the scarcity of this commodity since many of the large plants in this vicinity have gone over to crude oil.

CARD OF THANKS.

"We wish to express our sincere gratitude to our friends and neighbors who rendered us such substantial assistance following the burning of our home. We assure all that their kind news is deeply appreciated. —Mrs. and Mrs. B. C. Berry.

A DOCTOR'S REMEDY

As a cure for coughs and colds Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey combines these remedies in just the right proportion to do the most good for summer coughs or colds. A trial will prove the value of this splendid cough medicine. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey soothes the irritation, stops your cough, kills the cold germs, and does you a world of good. A 25c bottle will more than convince you—it will stop your cough. At druggists.—Adv.

Like an Open Book For Young Mothers!

Most women look upon becoming a mother, for the first time, as something full of unknown mysteries; a goodly and painful; a time of distressing days and months. These are misguided conclusions. "Mother's Friend," used daily before confinement, will prove its great value as an ally to those distressing pains and assist nature in doing its work with ease and comfort. Get "Mother's Friend" at your drug-gist.

The young mother should become acquainted with the information contained in a book on Motherhood that will be mailed free to all who write.
